THE NANCY HORTON BARTELS ’48 SCHOLAR FOR EDUCATION
Summer 2021

The Bartels Scholar for Education will learn about the Museum’s collections and work as needed within the four areas of the Museum’s Education Department. This summer-only position is 39 hours per week. The intern receives a travel stipend for research and professional development (contingent upon Cornell travel regulations) and must be willing to work remotely.

DUTIES WILL INCLUDE:

• Work with Academic Programs includes researching and writing about the Museum’s collections and helping to prepare Museum class sessions and instructor workshops.
• Work with Public Programs includes helping to form and maintain connections among the Ithaca community, Cornell campus, and the Museum and helping to develop and organize public programs. The latter may include lectures, artist talks, screenings, workshops, and performances.
• Work with School and Family Programs includes developing virtual resources for PreK-12 classes and assisting with associated distance learning programs.
• Work with Student Engagement includes helping to plan, promote, present, and evaluate virtual educational and social programs for student organizations and campus groups. The intern will also give tours as requested, help to develop and implement workshops, and help to improve digital presence.

QUALIFICATIONS NEEDED:

• This internship is only for Summer 2021. Applicants must be available for all of Summer 2021.
• Strong interest in education and in learning about art from around the world throughout time.
• Prior experience working with elementary-age schoolchildren and diverse audiences preferred.
• Excellent organizational, written and oral communication, research, and interpersonal skills to reliably and creatively work with staff, as well as independently, in a fast-paced environment.
• Embrace new challenges with enthusiasm and a high level of attention to detail.
• Flexible schedule and availability to work on some weekends, evenings, and weekday mornings.
• Willingness to quickly acquire skills in idea creation and editing in Premiere or other software. Existing experience in this area is a bonus.
• Graphic design skills and experience working with Adobe Creative Suite preferred.

This position is located in Ithaca, New York. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and Cornell University’s need to limit the number of on-campus employees, the successful applicant may be asked to perform this role remotely.

The Johnson Museum of Art values the power of different perspectives to expand and deepen our understanding of art and society. The Museum is an inclusive space and we seek candidates who will contribute to an environment that supports students, faculty, and staff of all identities and backgrounds.
